

El fantasma de Cervantes es un relato de ficción en el que Carlos Luna, el joven adolescente que vive junto a la casa en donde residio Miguel de Cervantes en Valladolid (España), habla con su ilustre vecino. El mismo Cervantes le cuenta que él no ha muerto, que vive en sus libros. Por eso, cada vez que Carlos abre El Quijote, tiene un encuentro con él. Poco a poco, el escritor ira conquistando al joven estudiante, hasta explicarle de forma clara y amena las peripecias por las que paso hasta llegar a convertirse en un autor de best seller universal. El presente libro es lectura indicada para acercar la figura de Cervantes a niños y jóvenes adolescentes. Su protagonista es uno más entre la fila de adolescentes forzados a leer un capítulo de El Quijote en la escuela. Tan solo por el hecho de ser obligado a ello, dicha lectura se le resiste y le aburre. Tiene que ser el mismísimo Cervantes, y no sus maestros, quien le explique la fórmula secreta para entender y disfrutar con la lectura de sus libros.
