

At some point we have all hoped for an imaginary being with super magical powers to show up in our time of need. So that brings us to is there really a true fairy mermaid living at the bottom of the sea to protect us? Inspired by original creation works of The Sea Fairies and a deeper desire to explore the fantasy world of mermaids through modern illustrations that would fit in todays world no matter what time period. Kids will get to experience inside The Sea Fairies their own individualism for ways to feel and express empathy and creativity. Every character has an extraordinary meaningful role and purpose for teaching kids awareness and creativity. Now kids will get to add their own creative imagination through the life of illustration to a classic story!
